

HALF A MILLION DOLLARS TO BE INVESTED HERE

Within the next few months Reno will have a new industry in operation here which will employ a hundred men and will cost well on to half a million dollars.

It will be the plant of the Nevada Brewing Company, an offshoot of the Continental Brewing company. Plans and specifications for the great plant have already been adopted. The main structure will be six stories in height and will cost $200,000.

Five acres of land have been bought on East Fourth street, opposite the Flanagan warehouse, and excavations for the cellars will begin at once. The company will rush the work at high pressure speed and hope to be turning out beer by early spring time.

William C. Hamilton is president of the company and S. M. Snyder is secretary. The other directors are F. D. Mitchell, Daniel Wilson, Thos. B. Rickey, N. R. Butler and W. Brounger.

An effort will be made to produce the best beer on the coast and extra inducements will be offered to catch the trade of Reno and the extensive region tributary to this city.

Now Leads in Quality and Will in Quantity

The Journal received yesterday by express for public exhibition a box of very superior honey from G. W. Likes of Fallon. This honey was produced on Mr. Likes' ranch about 25 miles south of Wadsworth and it cannot be excelled anywhere in the United States or even the world.

It is perhaps not known to many of the readers of The Journal that Nevada took the first premium for the best honey at the World's Fair at Chicago, and it will doubtless do so at the World's Fair at St. Louis in 1904. This honey will be put on exhibition as soon as a suitable place can be secured by Major Ingalls, as it has been turned over to him for that purpose.

There have been recently shipped ten carloads of honey from this section, two carloads from Wadsworth and four or five carloads from Lovelock.

As soon as the Irrigation law is in full operation Nevada will lead the world in the production of honey, both in quantity and quality.

Florence Hastings' dancing class for pupils, 13 years old and over, meets Friday at 2:30. Children's class Saturdays at 2:30 p. m., in Kindergarten hall.

W. E. Brannon of Seattle has located in Reno. He plays first violin in the Owl orchestra and is an accomplished musician.

In the write-up yesterday morning of the minstrel performance. The Journal accidentally omitted the name of Miss Ora Gill, who was one of the chief entertainers of the evening.

The C. A. G. S. held a rousing meeting last evening and initiated seven members. The club will give a social for members only and their ladies next Friday evening in Kindergarten hall.

Harry Davis has placed an immense clock in front of the Model store. It is guaranteed as the proper timepiece to set your watch by as it is wound and regulated from the observatory.

A coaster brake racycle has been lost, stolen or has strayed away. Its front rim is partly split and it has a luggage carrier attached. A reward will be paid for its return, dead or alive, to The Journal office.

Sinking For Ore

Captain Hopkins was in from Steamboat yesterday. He has resumed active development work in the Great Western mine, already employing 14 men. The new pump and hoist are working very satisfactorily.

A POSITIVE BENEFIT

How Change in Southern Pacific Tracks Would Help Reno

"A corps of railroad engineers surveying in the vicinity of Reno this week executed a move that chills through the warm veins of the businessmen there who for months past felt so exultant over the future prospects of that thriving town by the river, and speculations of all kinds became rife and for a time there was stern consternation and men talked in groups of what the unexpected movement meant. The corps of engineers, starting from the new town two miles east of Reno, ran across the river to the south side, and there surveyed a line to the west of that side of the river. If this survey is for the new line of the track, Reno will be off the road and on the opposite side of the stream. This is what stirred up Reno, and it could not be ascertained what the survey meant."

The Truckee Republican rolls as a sweet morsel under its tongue a rumor that the Southern Pacific tracks at Reno are to be moved several blocks southward. The Carson News follows suit and both papers speak of the "stern consternation" existing in Reno.

As a matter of fact such a survey is being made, as was announced in The Journal several days ago. Should the line through the southern part of town be found to be a practical one it will result in the upbuilding of that portion of the city, adding a thousand or more people to that ward.

The removal of the tracks across the river would be a material benefit to even Commercial street, for it would be much better to have the employees of the railway company several blocks instead of several miles away from their places of business.

The Southern Pacific is making this survey in order to get its shops closer to town. The new line is near the Commercial Soap Works and the elevation is some twenty feet less than at the Virginia street crossing. This will enable the company to use its desert power to that point, while the present line would make mountain power a necessity about at the Asylum grounds.

Reno has everything to gain by this change in the line. Even Commercial street has nothing to lose. The Carson and Truckee papers are very kind to give Reno so much attention. It distracts attention from the positive fact that Truckee is soon to lose its freight division point and dispels fears of what the legislature could, if it wished, do to the capital city.

Handsome Improvements

J. L. Simpson, the progressive proprietor of the Monarch Lunch counter, is having his establishment renovated throughout and is putting in handsome fixtures. Plate glass mirrors extend along the entire back of the counter. Handsome shelving is being put into place and an aquarium and electric fountain will be added in a day or two. Fred Townsend has the contract for the improvement.

JOHN SPARKS SERENADED

Eagle Band Pays Next Governor of Nevada a Compliment

The Eagle band visited the home of John Sparks last evening and paid the next Governor of Nevada and his family the compliment of a serenade. The visit to the Sparks' home has been contemplated by the band for some time, hence it was non-political and a courtesy to an admirer and patron of the band. A few friends of the organization helped to make up the party.

Upon arriving at their destination the boys opened with one of their most entrancing selections, "The Darkey's Dream," and a great favorite, by the way, of Mr. Sparks'. At the conclusion of the piece Mr. Sparks appeared and thanked the boys and requested them to "play it again" and of course they readily complied.

D. H. Gibson, Chairman of the Democratic-Silver county fusion committee, then addressed Mr. Sparks, informing him of the purpose of the visit. Dr. Gibson was followed by Hon. W. H. A. Pike and Hon. L. Allen, both of whom spoke of Mr. Sparks as a progressive, energetic citizen and prophesied his election as Governor.

N. W. Roff was called upon, and after speaking kindly of Mr. Sparks as a citizen and a man which any State or community could be proud in claiming as a resident, he complimented the Eagle band as being fully as progressive and up-to-date as the city to which it belonged and Mr. Roff, having had some band experience, must have known what he was talking about when he said the Eagle band was the best musical organization that Reno has ever had and the people ought to be proud of it.

Mr. Sparks then addressed the band and concluded by inviting the whole party into his elegant home, where substantial entertainment awaited them. An hour or two were pleasantly spent and with three cheers for the next Governor of the State of Nevada, the party bid Mr. Sparks and his estimable wife good night.

Chamber of Commerce to Be Incorporated

Last evening a large, enthusiastic and interesting meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held in the law offices of Dodge & Parker. Chairman McCormack presided and Captain Cox officiated in the absence of the regular secretary.

The committee on organization reported names of a number of trustees to be selected by the Chamber. The following were elected for a term of six months:

H. J. Darling, R. W. Parry, S. M. Sample, Sol Levy, J. M. McCormack. The articles of incorporation were then signed by all the members present. The articles will be filed with the county clerk today and a copy will be sent to the Secretary of State. The incorporation will be known as "The Reno Chamber of Commerce," and is capitalized for a half a million shares of a par value of $1 each. The next regular meeting will be held Friday evening at the same place at which time organization will be perfected and the by-laws adopted. All interested in this movement for the benefit of the city are requested to be present at 8 o'clock sharp.

Local Notes on the Stock Industry

Grant H. Pyle came in from Deep Hole yesterday with eight cars of hogs. Twenty-seven cars of cattle and three cars of sheep were shipped from Reno yesterday.

President J. F. Reynolds of the Oakland Meat Company is here looking after his stock interests.

There is still a scarcity of cars. The Oakland Meat Company has several consignments waiting to ship.

A. C. Willey is up from Frisco. He has charge of a couple of bands of Gerlach cattle that are being fed on the meadows.

There were more rested cattle in the corrals last evening than for some time past. One hundred and six cars came in from the eastern part of the State and eleven cars arrived over the N-C-O.

Firemen's Ball

Monumental Hose Co., No. 6, will give its annual masquerade ball on Thanksgiving night at the University Gymnasium. The University faculty at a meeting yesterday afternoon granted the boys the use of the gym, stating that in granting the privilege they felt under obligations to the company for past services at fires and believed that organizations of this character were entitled to consideration and support whenever possible and so believing granted a privilege that otherwise could not be accorded. The boys feel grateful for the kindly consideration and will endeavor to prove themselves appreciative.

Will Increase the Force of Miners

H. L. Cowles, of New York, treasurer and general manager, Charles B. Hill, of New York, president, and M. I. Hill of Colorado Springs, one of the heaviest stockholders in the Pacific Consolidated Mining Company, of this city, returned yesterday to their homes after inspecting the property and arranging a plan of work.

They expressed themselves as greatly pleased with the outlook for the Pacific becoming a big producer. While they were here, they purchased practically all the stock in the company held locally. There is now not a share of stock for sale.

Superintendent Paarry is working 20 men, but as soon as accommodations can be arranged for them, he will increase the working force to forty. Little or no ore will be extracted for many months. The miners will be engaged for exploring for new ore bodies and blocking them out.

Thief Captured.

LATE NEWS OF TONOPAH

Breezy Items of That Camp Clipped From The Bonanza

While nothing clearly definite has yet been effected as to details of the project, it is well understood that ample capital is being organized for the construction of an opera house.

The arrivals by stage this week were 106, and the departures 67. Our head bookkeeper informs us that these figures indicate that the population of Tonopah is growing at the rate of 2000 a year.

J. F. Bradley, a prominent mining operator at Tonopah, Nevada, spent several days in Salt Lake last week, fixing up papers with the Keith-Keans company, to whom he bonded a group of claims lying on the extension of the famous Tonopah ledge.

The case of the State of Nevada vs. Dan Quillan, charged with displaying and flourishing a gun in one of our saloons a few nights ago, was tried before Judge Peters Tuesday and adjourned until Tuesday next. He was fined $100 and costs, which he paid after lingering a night in jail.

A natural phenomenon is reported from the new camp situated south of Weepah and twenty-three miles southwest of Tonopah, which is elsewhere referred to as "Nopah." At a point five miles distant from that camp there is arising from the rifts and crevices or the rocks an outburst of sulphurous smoke or vapor which the boys designate as a small volcano. There is a marked old lava flow below the point in fact Silver Peak marsh is but a few miles distant of recent geological age.

The best at one-half price

It takes five of the ordinary "quarts" to make a gallon, but a HAYNER QUART is a full quart, an honest quart of 32 ounces, four to the gallon. Now, you pay your dealer at least $1.50 a bottle for whiskey that cannot possibly be any better than HAYNER. If it is good, or if it is a gallon. If you buy HAYNER WHISKEY you save at least $3.50 on every gallon. We sell two gallons for about the same as you pay for one gallon of probably poorer whiskey. Just think that over and remember that HAYNER WHISKEY goes direct from our distillery to you, carries a UNITED STATES REGISTERED DISTILLER'S GUARANTEE OF PURITY and AGE and saves you the dealers' enormous profits. That's why it's so good and so cheap. That's why we have over a quarter of a million satisfied customers. That's why YOU should try it. Your money back if you're not satisfied.

NEWLANDS OF NEVADA

THERE doesn't seem to be a bit of doubt that Congressman Frank Newlands' fight for the United States Senatorship from Nevada will be successful. In the different counties the feeling in his favor is very strong on account of the fight he has made for irrigation. Irrigation is looked upon as the most needed thing in Nevada at present, and it is felt that a man who has made such efforts in their behalf should be allowed to make still more. Judge Hawley, Newlands' opponent, is a much respected jurist, who has been constantly advanced by the people, but his action in leaving the bench to take up the fight against a man so worthy of representing Nevada as is Mr. Newlands, is not looked upon with the utmost favor. It is felt that Mr. Newlands is the logical candidate for the office he seeks that by his Congressional record he has earned a seat in the United States Senate.—S. F. News Letter.

That Judge Hawley is a much-respected jurist no one will question, but that his long career on the bench has fitted him for an entirely different sphere of public service, at his advanced age, is more than doubted by many and in fact by most of his most intimate and sincere personal friends. Devoid as he is of any legislative experience, whatever, they feel that he would be wholly abroad in the United States Senate, and they regret that in the winter of his life, he has allowed himself to be placed in his present position, which is generally attributed to the wiles of Senator W. M. Stewart, who hopes through Judge Hawley to secure a few hold-over Senators for his candidacy in 1904. Judge Hawley's candidacy is hardly seriously considered by the intelligent voters of Nevada except in connection with Stewart's ambition to succeed himself two years hence. What is the true condition of the alleged Senatorial contest this year of our Lord 1902?

OUR MAN IS READY

THE Wells Herald challenges Mr. Farrington to a joint debate with Mr. Van Duzer. The former gentleman's Republican friends have been actively asserting that Mr. Van Duzer is of inferior material, intellectually, to Mr. Farrington. Here is a chance for Goliath to demolish David. Will he do it? We think that Mr. Farrington will keep as far away from Mr. Van Duzer as if the latter were a dynamite cartridge on a gridiron.

As stated in yesterday's issue, The Journal is authorized by Mr. Van Duzer to announce his desire to meet his opponent, Mr. Farrington, in joint debate at such times and places as may be agreed upon by the respective Executive Committees. We most sincerely hope that such arrangements will be made. Although past the age of active pedestrianism, The Journal scribe would hoof it ten miles to hear the same speech delivered by Mr. Farrington in Reno, and Mr. Van Duzer's reply thereto. It would be more fun than a four ring circus. Van has the Congressional proceedings for the last ten years at his tongue's end and has greater knowledge of National affairs than all of the Republican candidates combined. He would tear the wild assertions being made by his opponent into shreds and then melt them down to the smallest sized grease spot, which he would obliterate as easily as brushing away a cigar ash from his coat sleeve. But we prophesy that the Republican Committee know their Creator too well to place their candidate upon a rostrum to be jointly occupied by himself and Clarence D. Van Duzer.

ARROGANCE OF THE COAL BARONS

WHEN President Roosevelt sought to bring about a settlement of the coal strike President Mitchell frankly informed him that the mines would leave the settlement to any tribunal which he might appoint, and he guaranteed that his followers would abide by the result. The coal operators, however, refused the offer so graciously made by the leader of the mines, and absolutely refused to enter into any negotiations that would in any manner recognize the union. Such arrogance is only equalled by such perverseness as has characterized their course since the strike commenced. Their position was an insult to the President and he so regarded it. They were willing to leave each individual grievance to the judges of subordinate courts in Pennsylvania, but they were not willing to trust their interests in the hands of the President of the United States. The truth is, the coal barons do not care for the great mass of the people of the country who are dependent upon them for their food supply. They only desire to bring their employers to their feet and compel them to work for $1.10 per day, making them mere serfs whom they would compel to live upon the barest necessities of life.

The arbitration plan which has been since evolved by President Roosevelt and which was outlined in a previous number of this paper, although worthy of adoption, is not likely to meet with favor from the coal barons, as they do not feel that any tribunal can be appointed that will decide in their favor.

COME TO THE CENTER

THE Comstock Miners' Union has already raised nearly $400 for the striking coal miners and expect to increase it to $700. In the meantime the proposed little Reno pool of $100 is not yet complete, lacking nearly $30 at the present writing. Wake up, Renosites! Come along with your contributions and let us send five double eagles where it will do the most good. Talk is cheap but it takes money to buy bread and clothing for the families of the men who are making such a gallant fight in the interest of organized labor.

MR. SPARKS AS AN EMPLOYER

AN EMPLOYER'S position in regard to the working class can be best judged by the estimation in which he is held by the men in his employ. The writer of this has known John Sparks for nearly if not quite a quarter of a century. He knew him in Elko county here he employed a large number of men upon his extensive stock ranch, whom he paid the highest rate of wages for that class of labor. We have personally known at least fifty men who at different times were in his employ in Elko county, and not one of them had anything but good words and praise for Mr. Sparks, whom they all lauded as a kind and considerate employer, a prompt paymaster, and a liberal, high-minded man. The evidence of such men is worth more than forty thousand declarations of hiring scribblers that Mr. Sparks is not a friend of labor or laboring men.

THE money coming from the people by unjust tariff taxation is loaned by the government without interest to favored hands, and the fact is called "relieving the money famine." And the wonder is that so many people believe it. Nevada contributes annually several hundreds of thousands of dollars for the relief of the favored banks, and the sum total of the Republican vote on the 4th of next November will designate how many people in the State are desirous of continuing their contributions for the relief of the struggling monied institutions of the east.

PRETTY good evidence of the effectiveness of Mr. Bartine's speeches is the hatred that gentleman inspires among the Stewart Republicans. They don't appear to like him just a little bit, and he seems to care for their malicious remarks in about the same proportion.

THE Republicans have been declaring that hard coal could be imported into this country free of duty under the Dingley tariff law. Yet 67 cents a ton is exacted from the importers of Welsh anthracite coal by the United States.

THE Utah State Journal says truly that a little more diluted socialism and a great deal less undiluted capitalism would be a Godsend to this great nation just now.

Ballads and Folk Song This Evening

Mr. O'Sullivan concert at Steinway hall in San Francisco last night was a great success, the hall being crowded with a most enthusiastic audience. The management of the Grand Opera House presented the singer with a beautiful token of their appreciation. Mr. O'Sullivan will be accompanied in Reno by Miss Edith Ladd, a pupil of Henri Bird, of London. The Chronicle says: Denis O'Sullivan gave a farewell concert last night at Steinway Hall. The audience was large, and society was fully represented. Not since he gave us a concert before have we had such a delightful programme of songs, so delightfully rendered. Indeed, he never sang so thoroughly in vein as last night. It is hardly possible to go over his list of selections and pick out what was best. There were all varieties of music, from Chopin's Dirge for Poland to some particularly quaint and merry child songs of Saubert. We had the great number from "Meistersong," an old air said to have been written by King Henry III in 1574, and revealed in a dream to U. G. Bach 300 years after; Scottish airs, a serious one and a lively one, and two songs of the Zuni Indians, most charming and interesting. Schubert, Cornelius, Liza Lehmann and Sullivan had their representation, and unusually attractive settings by Dora Bright of five jungle songs of Kipling were sung for the first time. All those were rendered with such a perfect appreciation of musical and sentimental differences that every one of them would have been encored had the arrangement permitted that. There were several encores that Mr. Sullivan "could not refuse." He had, of course, at the end of the list a whole batch of his favorite Irish songs, which he can sing better than any one. In fact, Mr. O'Sullivan is, so far as we have heard, unique.

California may well be proud of him, for if there be any other concert singer who can go to the extremes of song "composition and touch the chord in the music of all nations, he has not appeared in America. Mr. O'Sullivan is now the most popular concert singer in Great Britain, and we have had the opportunity to see that he is equally notable as an actor. Miss Edith Ladd, also a young Californian, has developed into a most charming and sympathetic accompanist, who is at home, too, in all kinds of music. Mr. O'Sullivan leaves for England today to fill his usual engagements.

While opening a box, J. C. Mount, of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale by S. J. Hodgkinson.

"Hearts of Oak" Next Monday

When James A. Herne wrote his beautiful play of "Hearts of Oak" it was said by many that he was ahead of the times. In the face of fierce opposition, the author upset all stage traditions. He broke away from the ravings and rantings of the footlights, he swept aside impossible scenes and situations, he cast out the ugly stage properties and evolved a new order of things.

He gave to the stage "Hearts of Oak" and "Shore Acres," real men, women and children. He used no makeshift and stage properties where it was possible to present the genuine article. Who can ever forget the real supper scenes in these two domestic plays. "Hearts of Oak" presented by a specially selected cast of talented players, equipped with a magnificent display of scenic effects, will be seen at the opera house Monday night next.

Let Fusion men not forget that the time for registration expires on the 20th inst. (next Monday) Let them also remember that no names will be carried forward as in former years, but that every citizen must appear in person at Justice Linn's office to insure his name being placed on the registry list. So govern yourselves accordingly.

Messrs. Ayers & Lent have ordered a thousand dollars worth of raw material and will be prepared to fill all orders in the harness and saddlery line. S26m1

Fraleys Cloak House

At the beginning of the season when we opened our exclusive Cloak & Suit House we told you we would make strong efforts to cater for your trade. It is quite well known that our cloak and suit department has been the busiest in Reno this season. In addition to our prices being lower, the assortments and material are by far the largest, so it is reasonable to conclude that we can please you. Our styles and prices are a bewildering success. Come and see for yourselves. H. FRALEY, 204 Virginia street.

A LOVE LETTER

"Would not interest you if you're looking for a guaranteed salve for sores, burns or piles. Otto Dodd, of Ponder, Mo., writes: 'I suffered with an ugly sore for a year, but a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me. It's the best salve on earth, 25c at S. J. Hodgkinson's.'

ARE YOU DRY?

Then drop into the Snug. Your beer will be drawn cold and sharp. The wines and liquors there are of the best and the cigars contain no cabbage leaves. Go and see Jim.

Reno People Are 'Subscribing to the Fund for the Strikers'

Yesterday the fund for the aid of the striking miners and their families was increased by $8. The Reno Fusion Township Convention made no mistake in the nomination of F. G. Folsom for Justice of the Peace or William Wilson for Constable. Each is well qualified for the position for which he is nominated. The former will deal out justice intelligently and impartially and without fear or favor, and the latter will execute the law up to the hilt and to the satisfaction of all except evil doers, who will need expect no favors at his official hands.

To Fight El Toro.

Ed Kyle will leave Monday for Old Mexico in the company of Mr. and Mrs. D. Reed. While in the southern country he will be engaged by Dan Yates to pick the bull battles. Mr. Kyle expects to lay low a few head before his return. A large time will be given him before he leaves camp. A band has been organized by the vaqueros and it will play a farewell serenade. "Hold tight your saddle when the bull comes."

Special Rates for the Game.

The Southern Pacific Company, through Division Agent Prentice, has made special rates from Truckee, Lovelock and intermediate points for trains arriving in Reno on the 18th, good to return up to and including Monday, the 20th, on account of the football game.

Public Spirit.

A number of merchants have volunteered to close their stores Saturday from 2 till 4, during the football game. This should be done generally in order to permit as large a crowd as possible to attend the game.

Labor Meeting

The meeting of the trades unions, workmen and sympathizers, with labor will be largely attended. It will be addressed by Ed Rosenbaum of San Francisco. Steps will be taken at the meeting to form a local federation. The meeting will be held in Volunteer hall.

PREPARING FOR THE FRAY

Nevada Will Give a Good Account of Itself Saturday

(By King Ryan)

There was some good old hard football played on the University gridiron of rockpiles and sandholes last evening, playing that made some of the fan's hearts jump with joy. Coach Steckle put the squad through the practice for two hours and there was no loafing. Time and again the Varsity eleven went plunging, dragging, smashing and bucking through the second.

However, the vicious defense put up by the latter team made the playing hard and the gains shorter than usual. The Varsity bunch are gradually getting into good shape, though their fast, snappy signal practice is at times lost sight of in the game.

From present indications all can look for a fierce struggle with the Reliance club team next Saturday.

Reliance suffered a 12-0 defeat at Stanford, but have been greatly strengthened by the return of a number of their former players. The second's playing will develop some good ones before the inter-collegiate games. Such men as Jap Hart, Smith, O'Hara, Manks, Leavitt, Wright, Updike and Ben Evans are putting up a crack-jack defensive game for the second, and will all probably figure in the later games.

The usual bunch of fans were on hand, and the rooter's society rooted some. The hillside bleachers were dotted with a goodly number of co-eds, cheering their favorites for their individual part in this game.

The Fatal Day

Rumors were rife yesterday that Dave Leishman had succumbed to some dread disease while in the southern country, but last evening he arrived, still in the flesh, from Tonopah, where he instituted an Aerie of Eagles with a charter membership of 85. Dave is not dead yet, but such skilled physicians as Barney Campbell and W. I. Lynch extend no hope for his living past November 4th.

AETNA MINERAL WATER

(Bottled at Aetna Springs, Napa Co. Cal.)

There are so many kinds of mineral waters on the market, and all claiming to possess healthful properties, that it is difficult for a person to make a choice.

When we consider, however, that AETNA has stood in the front rank for years, has been a favorite in households as well as public resorts, and has been recommended by eminent physicians, who use it themselves and prescribe it for patients, there should be no question in the matter of selection.
